"IT'S BEEN A FUNDRAISING YEAR"

By Alicia Brown Young

As we rapidly approach an end to 2012, it is the beginning of our "FUNdraising" plans for 2013. Each year, my role as Director of Development and Fundraising for Sheila B. Ministries is to spearhead the development of programs to financially help undergird the different arms of the ministry. In the midst of having a great time and a lot of FUN, the ultimate purpose of our department is fundraising! The ministry has various entities that require our ongoing financial support. Some of these initiatives are collaborating with other ministries, conferences, sister chats, producing quarterly newsletters, public speaking camp for girls, (SYS - Speak Young Sista) and many other programs that need financial backing. Our goal is to convert the fundraising events into potential new donors and new resources by bringing awareness to the mission and vision of Sheila B. Ministries.

This past year we hosted several events that not only included fundraising efforts, but outreach programs that were reflective of what the ministry is all about.... Helping women live victoriously in all seasons of life through sisterly outreach, contemporary and personal interpretation of biblical principles and spiritual formation. Tina Robertson, COO of Interfaith Housing and Sheila B. Ministries board member expresses, "there are many ministries out in the community providing services for women, but we want to be relatable, relevant and restorative."

One of the highlights of the year is our Annual Christmas Fellowship and Fundraiser. The honorary chairs, Dr. Dan Jones and his wife, Atty. Maria Jones, long time supporters of the late Dr. E.K. Bailey and Sheila B. Ministries, did a phenomenal job soliciting support and attendance for the event and challenging attendees on the importance of supporting this ministry. In attendance, were board members Pastor Bryan Carter, Senior Pastor of the Concord Church and his wife Stephanie, Donna Skell, Executive Director of Roaring Lambs Ministry, Dr. Cynthia Mickens, Community liaison for Methodist Health Systems and sponsor of "Women of Influence" Ladies Luncheon and long time supporter and friend of the Bailey family, Mike Fechner, President of H.I.S. Bridgebuilders and his wife, Laura. In addition, we had over 100 attendees and more than half joined in by partnering with the ministry on several levels and opportunities to give. Levels to donate were the "Partnership Level" $250 per quarter or $85 per month, "Loyal Supporter" $10 per month or a "One Time Donation".

I once heard a quote by Aesop that said, "No act of kindness, however small, is ever wasted." Whatever contribution you are able to give to support Sheila B. Ministries is never too small. God has given Sheila B. Ministries a task to accomplish and it takes money. It takes money to do ministry! Be a supporter of Sheila B. Ministries in 2013! Join us by accepting the challenge to partner with us in 2013. For more information, please send us an email at sheilabstands.org. We thank God, in advance, for your support to accomplish those things God has placed before usMerry Christmas to you and your family and a happy and safe new year!
