Planes landed --- carloads and vanloads arrived at the Fairmont Hotel as women came from far and near to attend the 16th Annual S.T.A.N.D. Dallas Conference. Although this may have been the first time for many, for others this was a S.T.A.N.D. family reunion. But by the time we had our closing prayer, we were all a part of one big sisterhood. Nearly 300 women worshipped, prayed, studied and played together. From the intimate and encouraging Sister Chats, to the timely and dynamic speakers, there was something for everyone. Fun was had by all as we listened in on the Beauty Shop Confessions and strutted our stuff at the Denim & Bling fellowship. We later relaxed and refocused during "Father I Stretch" Yoga. A highlight of the week was the Ladies Luncheon where over 600 attendees went from Scandal to Redemption! We laughed together and sometimes cried together, but we left determined to live out the week's theme: Keep Calm I'm Still Standing.

Here is what a few of the women said about S.T.A.N.D. 2014:

Betty Guy (71)

from Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship in Dallas, TX. Representing the Women of Courage Widows Support Group says, "It was very revealing and inspiring for me to keep on with the ministry God has given me."

Stephanie Craddock (50)

from Mount Olive Baptist Church in Restortown, VA. says, "It was amazing and I praise God for the opportunity. From the preaching to the sessions, to the fellowships with the sisters, the bonds that we've made...it has been tremendous and I look forward to next year!"

Tanesha Wilson (31)

from Kettering Baptist Church in Upper Marlboro, MD says, "It was a tremendously awesome experience. I have been on a journey to specifically find my purpose and 10 minutes before entering Chrystal Evans Hurst's session, I was in my room crying out to God about His plan and purpose for my life." She further stated her favorite quote of the conference is this... Generations upon generations will be powerfully affected by your YES.

Tiffany Dupont (25)

from New Calvary Baptist church in Wilmington, DE says, "Each part of the conference was so unique. I was able to take a life-altering moment from each session."

As you can see, women from all seasons attended and left empowered to live victorious lives.

We thank you for coming. We receive so much from you. Your testimonies, life journeys, prayer requests, laughter, hugs, suggestions, and questions re-invigorate us to pray, plan and prepare MORE for YOU. We are Sisters Touching Assisting Networking with Dignity.

I, along with the board of directors, conference team and staff extend my sincerest love and gratitude to you all. May God bless you as He meets every need according to His riches in Glory.

KEEP CALM I'M STILL STANDING
