"For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes – the Jew first and also the Gentile. This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life." Romans 1:16-17

Quotes to Ponder

- "The Gospel of Mark tells a mysterious story enveloped in apocalyptic urgency, a story that focuses relentlessly on the cross and ends on a note of hushed, enigmatic hope. Many of the key images in this mysterious narrative are drawn from Israel's Scriptures; indeed, a reader who fails to discern the significance of these images can hardly grasp Mark's message."
– Richard Hays, Reading Backwards
- "The principle runs through all life from top to bottom. Give up yourself, and you will find your real self. Lose your life and you will save it. Submit to death, death of your ambitions and favorite wishes every day and death of your whole body in the end: submit with every fiber of your being, and you will find eternal life. Keep back nothing. Nothing that you have not given away will be really yours. Nothing in you that has not died will ever be raised from the dead. Look for yourself, and you will find in the long run only hatred, loneliness, despair, rage, ruin, and decay. But look for Christ and you will find Him, and with Him everything else thrown in." – C.S. Lewis, Mere Christianity

P2P (PASTOR TO PEOPLE)

Give Me Faith

Sundays are for being renewed as we worship God. Renewed in our God's covenant-keeping promises to us. Renewed in His great love for you us. Renewed in his power to give us faith. The mustard seed parable will be our Scripture text (Mark 4:30-32) for Sunday (Mar. 17). This text will point us to our need for Christ's salvation and his kingdom which is entered into by faith. Elevation Worship penned a song titled, "Give Me Faith" and the words sum up well what we all need to be asking God.

Give me faith to trust what You say
That You're good, and Your love is great
I'm broken inside, I give You my life

I need you to soften my heart
And break me apart
I need you to pierce through the dark
And cleanse every part of me
All I am, I surrender

'Cause I may be weak
But Your spirit strong in me
My flesh may fail
My God you never will
I may be weak
But Your spirit strong in me
My flesh may fail
My God you never will

Ask Jesus Christ for faith through the power of the Holy Spirit and join us as we praise Him for his gracious response to our prayers.

Much Love,
Pastor Robert
