What we think about Jesus matters.

"For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes – the Jew first and also the Gentile. This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life." Romans 1:16-17

QUOTES TO PONDER

"And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind." - Matthew 22:37

"Luther says that vocations are a "mask from God. That is, God hides Himself in the workplace, the family, the Church, and the seemingly secular society" - Gene Edward Veith Jr.

"Before Jesus calls us to do things for him, he invites us to come be with him. He breathes his own Spirit into us. There is an interior reality to the kingdom of God; it involves something new happening in us (as we become new creatures in Christ)." - Amy Sherman

"A job is a vocation only if someone else calls you to do it for them rather than for yourself. And so our work can be a calling only if it is reimagined as a mission of service to something beyond merely our own interests. Thinking of work mainly as a means of self-fulfillment and self-realization slowly crushes a person." - Timothy Keller

P2P (PASTOR TO PEOPLE) Whatever You Do: Mothers

Today we celebrate and remember how our mothers have been a blessing to us. I remember when I was in elementary school making my art project for my mother. The project was some sort of pottery that I probably messed up. Nonetheless, I was so proud and thankful to be able to offer up something for my mother in honor of here service to me. It was a token of my grateful heart for ALL that my mother did for me. As I reflect back on those days as a child and a son of a wonderful mother, I can't but help think about Colossians 3:18-23. Paul gives instructions on how husbands, wives, parents, children, and slaves were to relate to one another. I find it very interesting that outside of wives and parents there is nothing overtly said about mothers. Ephesians 6:2 and Exodus 20:12 does say to honor your father and mother but Colossians doesn't. The silence in Colossians is closely connected to this idea that "whatever you do" should be as "working to the Lord, not men." So as you honor and appreciate your mother's today do it not to them only but first as "unto the Lord Christ". If your mother is no longer with you encourage another mother or a woman desiring to be a mother one day. By so doing you will be serving the "Lord Christ" and this will bring joy to our Father who is in heaven.

Much joy and love,
Pastor Robert
