What we think about Jesus matters.

"For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes – the Jew first and also the Gentile. This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life." Romans 1:16-17

QUOTES TO PONDER

“Readers should aspire to what is excellent. They should refuse to read a substitute Bible. They should want a Bible that calls them to their higher selves - or to something higher than their current level of attainment.” - Leland Ryken
““I wish it need not have happened in my time," said Frodo. "So do I," said Gandalf, "and so do all who live to see such times. But that is not for them to decide. All we have to decide is what to do with the time that is given us.” - J.R.R. Tolkien, The Fellowship of the Ring

““Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.” - Colossians 3:16

““Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.”
2 Timothy 2:3

P2P (PASTOR TO PEOPLE)

Never Forget – Memorial Day and Christians

I have been blessed to have a father and two brothers who have served in the US Air Force. Early on in my life I was very keen on serving our country through some sort of military service. Military service is one of the most common metaphors in the New Testament (1 Timothy 6:12) to describe the Christian life. We are to fight the good fight, put on the armor of God, and serve as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. When we remember the sacrifice, single-minded dedication, and discipline involved in the life of a soldier, we are calling to mind what we are supposed to be like as Christians in service to Christ. So when Memorial Day rolls around you can find me looking for a memorial day service or taking time to remember those who have gone before us. Their service to our country clearly reminds us of those who have gone before us (Hebrews 12:1) in service to Christ’s kingdom.

So take some time to thank God for a day to remember God’s common grace to America and his special grace in enlisting us, poor weak soldiers that we are, in service to Christ our Captain and conquering King.

Deepest gratitude,
Pastor Robert
