QUOTES TO PONDER

"All Christians are truly of the spiritual estate, and there is no difference among them, save of office alone. As St. Paul says (1 Cor. 12), we are all one body, though each member does its own work, to serve the others. This is because we have one baptism, one Gospel, one faith, and are all Christians alike; for baptism, Gospel, and faith, these alone make spiritual and Christian people." - Martin Luther

"Those who really can receive bread from a stranger and smile in gratitude, can feed many without even realizing it. Those who can sit in silence with their fellow man not knowing what to say but knowing that they should be there, can bring new life in a dying heart. Those who are not afraid to hold a hand in gratitude, to shed tears in grief, and to let a sigh of distress arise straight from the heart, can break through paralyzing boundaries and witness the birth of a new fellowship, the fellowship of the broken."

- Henri J.M. Nouwen

"I appeal to you therefore, brothers,[a] by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship." - Romans 12:1

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY – SPECIAL NEEDS CLASSROOM

Special Needs Leaders, Donna & Debbie will be hosting an informal training for all current and potential volunteers on Sunday, September 29th during the Sunday School hour. The purpose of this meeting will be to discuss and informally train volunteers about the (new) classroom routing and how to best teach Emily. If you have been praying about serving, please contact Debbie Schreffler (deborahschreffler@yahoo.com)

"For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes – the Jew first and also the Gentile. This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, 'It is through faith that a righteous person has life.'" Romans 1:16-17
