NEWSLETTER

From the Desk of Pastor David Maxfield

Dear Friends in Christ,

Our hearts are saddened, and our prayers surround the people of Indiana where violent tornadoes ripped through towns and countryside leaving a path of damage in their wake. Then our prayers went to Italy to the beautiful mountainous area of Umbria where small villages were flattened by an earthquake and the death toll is now over 120 children, adults and elderly. All of this while we continue to pray for the people of Louisiana where record flooding surged over half the state and residents now face the long arduous task of mucking out, sanitizing and rebuilding.

We always begin with prayer. Standing in the flood waters of Minot a few years ago, that was what we had left, and prayer became our life. Devastation all around the waters had flooded not only church and homes, but lives, dreams. I can only imagine what our brothers and sisters are feeling as they come home to... rubble, mold, and grief.

It was prayer that carried us through the Minot flood and it is prayer which will see our friends through. Prayers from folks like you and me, who pray not for an answer or a reason why, but ask that in the midst of the devastation our friends may know the signs of God's presence, and that the One who redeems will bring good out of disaster.

I know God was among us in Minot. We received word of prayers from ELCA congregations around the country, but then the circle expanded, Methodist, Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Pentecostal, Mormon, you name it people of faith, people of no faith sent word of their thoughts and prayers.

Prayers came packaged in unexpected ways. Quietly, faithfully women of the church gather to quilt. Countless hours of love and prayers as blocks are sown, tops tied, the quilt boxed up and sent around the world to bring warmth to the body and a hug to the soul. Who would have thought that on a Thursday evening, in the parking lot where we gathered to pray (flood waters in the basement kept the doors locked) we would open a box and there would be two quilts- as we passed the quilts around we clutched them close to our hearts, the quilts moistened not with flood water but with the healing rain of tears. The quilts were a prayer... we were not alone.

God's presence came to us in surprising ways. After Communion in the parking lot we walked around the closed and molding building we called church. We did not know what to do, what we could do, or what the future would hold. On the far end of the building, the flood water had reached a height of over 5 ½ feet. Every sign of life was gone. The grass was covered in a muddy slime which looked like moonscape as it baked in the summer sun. Bushes, trees, you name it, it was gone. And oh the smell which was the parting gift of the water.

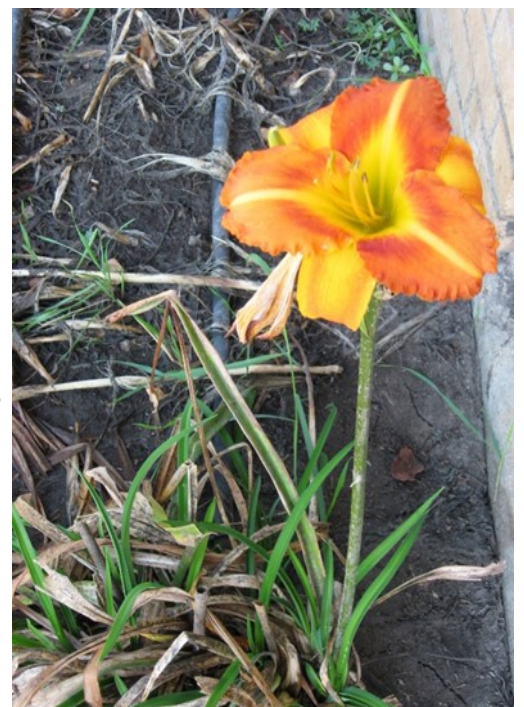

Then it was that one young boy started tugging on my sleeve, "You gotta see, you gotta see," so we did. As we walked through the muck and the mud we stopped, We looked, we were amazed. There in the corner of gunk a small lily had begun to grow, its blossoms eager to open to the sun. The rest of the summer one after another, as one lily withered another would take its place. Hope in the midst of so much suffering. ( the strange thing is that no one could recall planting the flowers, nor would they bloom the next year! Coincidence? I think not)

And prayers came incarnate in the people who took the time to come, who shared from their wallets and their hearts who called, who came, who prayed with hammers, sledges and hands folded across the miles.

This is the way our God works. This is the way God desires to work through us. I have had the privilege of witnessing a miracle- a response to prayer and I want us to discover the joy of being the servant people of God. As we open our hands in prayer to carry the folks of Indiana, Italy and Louisiana into the healing presence of the Holy One, let us open our hearts and minds to the whisper of the Spirit, who knows, maybe we are an answer to someone's prayer

Shalom

Pastor David

Call Committee Update

The first meeting of the newly formed Call Committee met on August 23rd to begin the process of calling an Associate Pastor to GDLC. Members of the committee are as follows: Pastor David, Wayne Colebank, Lisa Hanson, Cody Jeanotte, Deb Kemp, Stan Lyson, Alberta Parisien, Drew Robinson, Wendy Slotsve, Deb Solomonson, Hailey Vader and Carl Zeman. We are all extremely excited and committed to begin this process and follow it through to bring an Associate Pastor to join us at GDLC.

We have begun working on the Ministry Site Profile, which is the document that will be submitted to the Bishop's office to formally begin the call process, and we have broken down the tasks of the committee to be as efficient as possible.

We ask that you would pray for us as a committee, for the call process, and especially for Gloria Dei as a whole that we can work together for the good of the Church.

From the Stewardship Committee:

- As stated at the annual meeting and in the annual report, the Council's goal is to keep $60,000 in the 50/50 debt retirement fund. Currently the balance in the 50/50 fund is $4663.06. Please prayerfully consider a donation to the 50/50 fund as we support our "Gathering to Grow to the Glory of God" mission.
- A huge THANKS to those who have donated to Gloria Dei's Above & Beyond program. ## A Monthly Update from the Western North Dakota Synod Office

Proud to Participate...

Once again it was an honor to see people from our Synod actively involved as servants during August's ELCA Churchwide Assembly. Rev. Craig Schweitzer and Associate in Ministry Kari Files were part of the team of worship musicians. Mason Schmidt, Christ Lutheran (Minot), was assisting minister during worship on Friday of the Assembly. Synod staff member Sherie Heine was one of the communion ministers during the entire Assembly. Connie Essler, America Lutheran (Stanley), served as an Assembly volunteer.

There were also seven people from our Synod who participated in the Grace Gathering, a way for people from around the country to experience the work this church does together in Jesus' name.

News from Around Your Church...

Sixteen voting members from our Synod joined almost 1,000 voting members from around the country to do the business of the church. During the time in New Orleans the Assembly:

- Gathered daily in worship, with rich preaching of God's word and the celebration of Holy Communion.
- Heard calls from our Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton, Secretary Chris Boerger, and Vice President Carlos Pena to remember that Jesus is at the heart of who we are; it is proclamation of the Good News of his death and resurrection we are called to share and be about as church.
- Continued the conversation about future priorities of our church.
- Elected William B. Horn II (Clearwater, Florida) as Vice President.
- Unified the three lay rosters of Diaconal Minister, Associate in Ministry and Deaconess into one roster which will be known as Deacon.
- Passed a memorial repudiating the Doctrine of Discovery.
- Approved a document (Declaration on the Way) outlining what the ELCA and the U.S. Roman Catholic Church agrees on in terms of the church, worship, and Holy Communion.

You can read more about your Church's gathering at elca.org.

Great News...

We have received word a Churchwide mission probe grant has been approved for "Penelope's Place", an outreach of Metigoshe Lutheran Church. This ministry's goal is to connect with those pushed away by the church - especially women. We are looking forward to seeing what God might stir up through this outreach.

Save the Dates!

All ELCA Rostered Leaders are invited to a leadership gathering next summer in Atlanta, Georgia. The event entitled, "On the Way Together", is being billed as a continuing education event with excellent worship, learning opportunities, and the ability to connect with colleagues from across our church. The dates are August 7 -10, 2017. Watch for more details in coming months on the ELCA website.

Good Resources...

I commend two books, which I have recently read, to you. The first is "Embracing Stewardship" by Charles "Chick" Lane and Grace Duddy Pomroy. The first section of this book lays out a solid Lutheran theology of stewardship. The second section is intended to be used over time as a resource providing different ways to engage stewardship within a congregation.

One of the gifts of this book is the diversity of the two authors. They are open about the difference in their church backgrounds, their age, and their gender. This diversity brings a wider range of thinking to current day issues of being stewards - or caretakers - of all God has entrusted to us.

The second book was shared with me by Pastor Marty Mock. "I Am A Church Member" by Thom S. Rainer is a quick read and defines the difference between a church consumer and a disciple of Jesus. Pastor Mock plans to use this as a conversation starter with his church council.

Both of these books could be excellent conversation starters within your congregation.

Church Council Visits...

In the coming weeks, Synod Council members and Synod Staff will be making phone calls asking to make a visit to some church councils across the Synod. The purpose of these visits is straight forward: to thank congregations for their partnership, to share stories of ministry in Jesus' name made possible because congregations share Mission Support, and to share the Bishop's Challenge.

If you would like a visit, please call the Synod Office and let us know. If you receive a call, please help arrange the visit. We are thankful for your partnership in the Gospel.

“You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.” Psalm 16:11

I looked up “JOY” from Wikipedia: JOY differs from happiness in that it is an emotion. Happiness on the other hand is what we think of as a feeling and is more fleeting. Joy may be thought of as a dimension of the good life that is being lived well.

The psalmist King David’s heart was glad, he had found the secret to joy. True joy to him was far deeper than happiness and can be felt more so than all of our troubles. Joy is lasting because it is based on the presence of God within us as David had found and he was assured that God would not leave him. And as we understand the future God has for us we can live in the joy of abundant life in Christ Jesus as we realize that God will not leave us.

What kind of joy is being set before you? Can you call the crosses you have to carry as a Christian nothing but joy as the Apostle Paul? Can you name the joys and sorrows that mark your paths as witnesses of our Lord Jesus? Most of the worshippers at Faith Lutheran live in a rural life setting and farming the land and growing crops is their mainstay. We get tied to the seasons and right now it is the season of harvest and your joy should be great as the harvest is plentiful.

Every person regardless of where they live experiences busy seasons. I just returned from a trip to Minneapolis and people were rushing everywhere you looked. We need to be on the alert that we don’t let the busyness of life take away joy have in Jesus. So I ask you: Name just one joy in your life today.

God's Work. Our Hands.

"God's work. Our hands." Sunday is an opportunity to celebrate who we are as the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America – one church, freed in Christ to serve and love our neighbor. The date this year is Sept 11; also our Rally Sunday.

Service activities offer an opportunity for all age groups to explore one of our most basic convictions as Lutherans: that all of life in Jesus Christ – every act of service, in every daily calling, in every corner of life – flows freely from a living, daring confidence in God's grace.

We plan to gather after our church service on September 11 for a "brown bag lunch" and organize into our groups. From 12:30 to 2:30 we will go out and serve. We will then gather back at the church for Root Beer floats, celebration, and prayer-remembering especially our fire-fighters, policeman, and all impacted by the tragic events September 11, fifteen years ago.

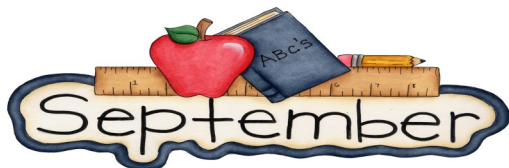

We have a sign-up sheet with some of the service activities we hope to offer please prayerfully consider leading, co-leading, or joining a team. Also, if you or someone you know may benefit from minor home repairs, housekeeping, shopping, yardwork, or vehicle clean on Sept 11, please write your or their name and contact information if you have it on the bottom of the sheet. Deadline to sign up is September 5th, please call the office if interested.

We are excited to be a part of this wonderful event and look forward to serving with you!
