

I'LL KNOW HIM BY THE SCARS

He hung up on the cross, by the nails in His hands
Truly the Son of God, and the Son of man
The Precious Lamb of God, spotless without sin
You'll know Him by the scars where the nails had been

He was given to the world, disobedient and lost
He sacrificed His life, on that old rugged cross
He shed His precious blood, to set the sinner free
The precious Lamb of God, died for You and me

(CHORUS)

The darling Lamb of God, stainless white as snow
Oh what a precious Savior that I've come to know
In the presence of the Lord, I know someday I'll stand
I'll know Him by the scars of the nails in His hands

Oh dear Lord what can I say, to express my gratitude
The respect and the love, that I feel for You
I'm a sinner saved by grace, a child of the King
To the precious Lamb of God, I'll sing

(RETURN TO CHORUS)
