

LORD OF LORDS, KING OF KINGS

Jesus was the Lamb of God; Came to set the sinner free
He was sent from heaven above; to save the wretch like you and me
He came down some years ago, and let me tell you, friend
Jesus Christ, the Son of God is coming back again

(CHORUS)

Cause He's the Lord of Lords, the King of Kings
By His blood salvation brings
Hallelujah the angels sing to the King of Kings

I believe the Bible, every verse and every line
It's the everlasting Word of God; stands strong to the test of time
I don't believe in the new age thing I'm seeing on TV
I believe the Son of God sets the sinner free

(RETURN TO CHORUS)

And if you don't know this man that was born in Bethlehem
Let me tell you about the Son of God; Jesus, the great I Am
He knows every hair upon your head and He knows your every care
He'll look upon you and change your life if you say the sinner's prayer

(RETURN TO CHORUS)
