

TITLE: “Four Lessons I have Learned During the Covid-19 Pandemic”

TEXT: John 14:1-6

INTRODUCTION: (June 14, 2020)

Like you, I’m praying that God will put an end to this virus soon—but I also see the potential for positive change.

Here are some lessons I pray we learn before this pandemic comes to an end...

1. The church is more than a _____!
2. We need to learn to practice _____.
3. Prayer is vastly _____ and significantly underutilized.
4. God is in _____.

CONCLUSION:

Remember, dear friends, eternity is long and life is short. And come what may, God is our Father and “Great is His Faithfulness.” And may His faithful character and eternal kingdom be the background that transforms the way we see everything else.
