

(Sermon Series: "The Winning Walk of Faith")

TITLE: "The Test of Faith"

TEXT: Genesis 22:1-14, ESV

INTRODUCTION: (September 13, 2020)

As we've been studying "The Winning Walk of Faith" the last couple of weeks, we've looked at the need to listen for God's call, the need to act on that call and then how believing is seeing through the eyes of faith.

Today we will see how God tested Abraham's faith in the most extreme way possible when he was asked to sacrifice his own son.

There are three questions we need to ask ourselves when the testing of faith comes:

1. Can I _____ between two _____?
2. Can I _____ even when it's _____?
3. Can I _____ God to do what is _____?

CONCLUSION:

What we need to do is put our life in His hands, trusting Him, as Abraham did, to always come through on His promise!