DON'T BAMBOOZLE YOUR SOUL

Chinese bamboo produces little outward growth for the first four years of its life. Though it's puny and pitiful, there's something powerful happening underground. In the fifth year, the tree grows eighty feet! We must cultivate our soul and understand that the root comes before the fruit.

The way to cultivate your soul is with spiritual fertilizer. Sprinkle the Word of God on your soul, bathe (water) it with prayer and make sure it receives plenty of SON light and you will be refreshed in your walk with the Lord.

I would like to encourage you to read through your bible this year. "I've tried that before and failed!" Then, this year get on a New Testament only reading plan. In other words, don't bite off more than you can chew and set yourself up for success. Less to read a day, but still a great accomplishment. You will cover all of Jesus' life, the history of the first Church, letters from the disciples and the Revelation of Jesus Christ in the end times.

Exciting spiritual transformation will happen when you feed your soul. But remember this: God must take you deep before He can grow you tall!

Tips on Reading the Bible:

1. Start today--there is no better time, and there's no reason to wait.
2. Pray before you begin reading each day, asking for Him to give you wisdom and understanding, then be refreshed by the words you read!

3. Set aside a specific time each day. Set your schedule, and then stick to it. Mornings are great, but feel free to use any time that works consistently for you.
4. Read for the sake of learning, not simply to accomplish your next reading.

Happy Growing!

Nicaragua Update

Well our team is about formed; we have 22 committed and 2 almost there. You will be able to meet the team on January 27th! Our team will be hosting our first fundraiser lunch for FBCC's Annual Meeting Sunday the 27th at 12:30 P.M.

We have heard one of our projects will be building a wall, something along the lines of a cinder brick wall. Sounds fun, moving and lifting large stone bricks in the heat of Central America but that is what service is all about! This won't be a vacation!

One of our missionaries wrote us and said, "This week I was in Rama and there were cows inside of the property. Definitely, the wall will keep all animals out and the children in the property." (continued on page 2)

Rama is a semi-rural community although it is the largest port in the Atlantic Coast. As you see on the map of Nicaragua, Rama is the last place that you can reach by road. After that, the only connection to Bluefields is by boat, traveling the Escondido River. Bluefields is not an island, but there is no connection by road to the Pacific Coast.

We keep learning more and more about what God is doing in Nicaragua. If you didn't know our team is memorizing 20 Bible verses for this trip. Our first one was Philippians 4:7-8 this month we are working on. Philippians 2:3-4 NIV Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others. We would like to invite you to memorize it with us.

Thanks for your prayers and your financial support. I am praying this is a life changing trip for all of us at FBCC. Sundoulos (Greek meaning a fellow bond-slave)

IN HIS GRIP

2013! Wow a new year again. An opportunity to look back at where we have come in the last year and to see what God is doing in our lives. It is also a chance to look ahead and begin now to seek God's leading for our lives this New Year. Don't spend a lot of time doing a lot of looking back and wishing things had been different, don't spend time in "if only" or guilt-ing yourself for all the times you could have done better. This is the New Year and it is time to begin again, knowing that God loves you and cares about you so focus on the future you have before you. Remember you can't change one minute of the past but you can, with God's help, make your future better and spend your time looking to Jesus. Let the Holy Spirit guide you and really be attentive to what He wants you to do this year to draw you closer to Him.

One of the things I want to offer you as an idea is to read the Bible through this year. (Grace and I are doing this again this year). If you've never done that it will be a brand new experience and you will be surprised at all the places God will speak to you; if you have read it through before pick a different translation perhaps and be blessed all over again. There are many different reading plans that will make sure you get through it all in a year. I will be placing some of them on our website www.fbcchehalis.org. If you don't want to look on line here are some thoughts for you. The devotional booklet we have in the church lobby, "Our Daily Bread, you can take a copy, lists a passage each day to read that will ensure you complete the entire Bible in one year. Here are some other ways to go about it:

- Beginning to End – read the Bible from start to finish, from Genesis to Revelation.
- Chronological – read the Bible as the events occurred in real time. For example, Job lived sometime after the beginning of creation (Genesis 1) but before Abraham was born (Genesis 12). As a result the book of Job is integrated into the book of Genesis.

- Historical – Read the books of the Bible as they were written historically, according to the estimated date of their writing.
- New then Old – Read through the New Testament first then read through the Old Testament.
- Old and New - Each day includes a passage from both the Old and New Testament.

Here is a website that will help you do any one of these plans: <http://www.ewordtoday.com/year/>. If you don't have access to a computer please contact me and I will get you the plan that works for you.

Another thing which you can do this new year is be more intentional and deliberate in your prayer life. This one I really need to work on this year!! Here are some Helps to improve your prayer Life this year:

1. You are Worthy – Do not feel guilty about the quality of your prayer life. Remember Christ paid your debt on the cross.
2. The more you pray the richer your prayers become -- To deepen your prayer life, don't be a slacker. Like anything in life, to become good at prayer you must be disciplined. Pray each day.
3. Prayer is active -- Prayer involves action; namely being attentive to God's voice in your life. Listening for God means stopping and sitting still.
4. Prayer should not be an after-thought -- Prayer was so very instrumental in Jesus' ministry. Just as Jesus broke away from His disciples to spend time in prayer, you can break away from your daily routine for quiet time and prayer.
5. Surround yourself with people who are seasoned at praying – People who have a regular prayer routine have much to teach us; seek them out and let them guide and encourage your prayer life.

6. God doesn't require eloquence – Don't worry if you fumble for words when you pray. God is not grading you on your words but on your heart for the sincerity (not that you can't have both at once) don't worry if the words won't come, God still knows what is in your heart.
7. Prayer is a time for a conversation with a friend who loves you: God -- whether you see that friend routinely or just every once in a while, know that when you turn to God you are turning to someone who loves you.
8. Ask God for help if you get stuck – Maybe you've hit a dry spell. There's no shame in asking God to guide you to pray in a new way.
9. Listen, Listen, Listen – Listening for God is central to prayer. The more you listen with your spirit's ears the more you will begin to hear from God.

These are just a couple of things you can do in this New Year to make it a richer fuller time.

I would be remiss if I did not say a word about Small Groups – basically if you are in a group, GREAT!! If your not; what keeps that from happening right now? If you need some help to get in a group or just want to talk about it please contact me.

May this be a great and wonderful New Year for you and yours. Know that every day is brand new and we get the chance for "do overs." God is the God of Second and more chances.

Well my paper is full now so I will stop here. Looking forward to seeing you in this New Year.

DOWN ON THE FARM

REVEALED – RESTORED - REPURPOSED

“Grandma’s Table – must sell.” The photo accompanying this ad was a bit dark but the table appeared sturdy and broad. I hoped it would be big enough to spread out quilting material. A brief exchange of emails negotiated a slightly better price and hubby and I took off to look at the table. Although nicks, scratches and pre-school artwork were evident, we felt it could be refinished. We paid the lady, hauled it home and put it in our barn.

I borrowed a sander, bought some facemasks and set to work on the top. Beautiful wood grain rose to the surface as layers of dirt and stain were ground off. The deeper scars smoothed out, leaving shallower “character” lines. As finer and finer sandpaper skimmed across the table, the texture beneath my fingers changed from slightly gummy to rough to smooth.

The underside and legs were more difficult on work on. Evidence of water damage, grit and rust on the metal hardware and awkward angles created a challenge for this novice table renovator. I saw areas that would never be perfect but I cleaned and smoothed everything I could. The more effort I expended, the more satisfied I was with the table’s appearance.

“Grandma’s table” now waits for a final sanding and a new coat of color and sealer. The years of hard use and neglect have disappeared and a new place and purpose promise a new life. No longer just a piece of furniture, it is now part of our home. I’d like to think, whoever Grandma was, she’d be giving a wink of approval.

It doesn’t require a great stretch of imagination to compare the table’s re-birth to my own. When I accepted Christ as Savior, there were years of world-grime layering my heart and mind. I like to think that, just as we chose that table, Jesus chose me. I cling to that sense of relationship, of belonging.

The Spirit of God has worked on me and in me, first on the surface, then layer by layer, revealing me, a unique creation, formed by His hands. The nicks and dings in my soul have been smoothed as He’s applied grace and forgiveness. The remaining scars reveal the character He has been building within me. His work grinds off attitude, selfishness and worldliness, reshaping me into a usable vessel.

I gave God my battered heart and spirit. He knew the value of His creation and set to work to restore me. Just like that table, my life had new purpose and direction. I wonder if the Lord has the same sense of satisfaction in remolding me that I experienced in refinishing Grandma’s table. I certainly hope those changes result in a Godly wink of approval.

Worship Is...

. Building character. Did you know you are a work in progress? It’s a long slow growth process to become more like Christ. Spiritual maturity is neither instant nor automatic; it is a gradual, progressive development that will take the rest of your life. Paul referred to this process as "This will continue until we are....mature, just as Christ is, and we will be completely like him" (Ephesians 4:13 CEV). Not possible, you say? Well, there is much confusion in the Christian life when we ignore the simple truth that God is far more interested in building our character than he is anything else. We are human beings, human beings. God is much concerned about our character than our careers, because we will take our character into eternity, but not our careers. Did we think Jesus died on the cross just so we could live comfortable, well-adjusted lives? His purpose is far deeper because He wants to make us like himself before he takes us to Heaven This is our greatest privilege, our immediate responsibility and our ultimate destiny.

As You make your New Year's resolutions this year, why not decide that God wants you to make a difference in his world. What matters is not the duration of your life but the donation of it, not how long you lived, but how you lived. If you're not involved in any service or ministry, what have you been using as an excuse? That you're a misfit? That you don't have anything to offer him? That's nonsense. Look at a few of the misfits in the Bible. There are many;

Abraham was old; Moses stuttered; Rahab was immoral; David had an affair and all kinds of family problems; Jeremiah was depressed; Thomas had doubts; Paul had poor health; Timothy was timid; Martha worried a lot; And the list goes onFunny how God used each of them in his service. He'll use you, too. You just need to stop making excuses.

It's a new year coming, how are you going to work on your character building? Think about it.

Blessings

Mission of the Month

Possibilities Pregnancy Center

Possibilities Pregnancy Center exists to be a resource for women and men with pregnancy related needs. Our services include, free pregnancy tests, prenatal, parenting, and abstinence education, pregnancy loss support and free baby & maternity items. All of our services are confidential, free of charge and made possible by the generous donations of the community.

Possibilities Pregnancy Center has undergone many changes this year in fact, we joke that “change” is our middle name, but without change there isn’t growth. Physically we have seen changes, the first one being the change of our name from the Care Center to Possibilities Pregnancy Center with our tagline being “a place of hope” which reflects what we offer which is, possibilities of hope to everyone who walks through our doors. Our readerboard was also given a bright facelift to coincide with our new name and logo with the goal being that people who need us will see us and stop in to use our services.

We recently renovated our stairs, added a bookcase for our curriculum, and added a half wall to make space for a new set of volunteers; two amazing nurses! Under the leadership and license of Dr. Scalici, we are now able to provide pregnancy test verification, which is simply proof of pregnancy and prenatal nurse consultations, once a trimester. These are exciting changes that are bringing tremendous growth and a new standard of professionalism to our Center.

As you also know our economy isn’t the best and we have had more people than ever need material support such as diapers, wipes, baby clothes, etc. We have been blessed with the faithful support of donations from our community and use wisdom with what is entrusted to us to serve the clients to the best of our ability. We are always in need of baby toiletry items such as shampoo, baby wash, baby powder, as well as socks, shoes, coats up to size 4T and baby furniture items such as high chairs, pack n plays, and strollers. With your prayers and support we are able to be God’s hands and feet this community that so desperately needs hope.

If you have any questions or would like further information, please don’t hesitate to call our Center at 330-2229.
