

CONGO MISSIONARIES HERE MARCH 21

Please join us as we welcome Glen and Rita Chapman for the first time to FBCC. Missionaries to the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Glen and Rita live at the remote mission's station our mission's team visited in 2010.

Wednesday night March 21, 7:00 P.M. we will gather together in the worship center. Our youth ministry praise team will lead us in worship and we will have the opportunity hear what God is doing in Kikongo. Rita makes the best dried caterpillars I have ever eaten, maybe she'll bring some!

The Chapmans keep some unique animals in their backyard including crocodiles, an antelope that looks like a miniature deer, two exotic birds and the only known Congo clawless otter in captivity. While it might sound like they care for these animals for fun they are actually using them as an ongoing lesson of conservation for the locals.

Glen and Rita Chapman train Congolese students and their spouses, preparing them for ministry in their hometown in the rural environment. Glen teaches pastoral students at the Kikongo Pastor's Institute where he is professor of Old Testament, African religions, and Baptist distinctives. I had the privilege of teaching a couple of classes at the institute as well as speaking to the pastors and their wives.

Glen also projects evangelistic movies as well as educational videos on medical and health issues such as malaria, HIV, dysentery, etc. in the rural areas where he travels by boat. He has now envisioned a new means of transportation, using a PPC (powered parachute) flight which would take only 3 hours to reach the villages as opposed to 3 days. Both Angela and I were taken on rides by Glen on the PPC which was an amazing experience.

A PPC can carry 2 people at a time, plus luggage/cargo, so it is a good means of getting medical supplies to the interior clinics in a timely manner, which is particularly vital during vaccination campaigns as it is crucial to get the vaccines out faster without damage caused by the high temperature.

Rita directs and teaches at the Women's School. She continues to develop and improve course materials for the pastors' wives. She teaches illiterate women to read, and also serves as an active member and counselor of the parish women's fellowship. Jackie was able to teach sewing skills to the ladies over a couple of days at the school.

Please plan to join us as we encourage Congo missionaries and hear more stories of God's amazing work in the DRC.

Generation Y

You may be asking yourselves, "What is Generation Y?" The answer to that is simple. We are a group of young adults who want more from our church experience than simply attending Sunday service. If you are a young adult out of high school and you feel as if you don't belong in any of the other small groups, feel free to join us!

Our first meeting was held February 19 and it was a smashing success. We want to incorporate all of the things into this group that we cannot achieve by ourselves. Every member of the group will be giving a personal testimony so that we can get to know each other on deeper levels. If you feel the need to unburden yourself with something that has been weighing heavy on your heart, we are here for you!

This group is about togetherness, prayer, bible study, and so much more! We want to challenge ourselves, step out of our comfort zones, and help our community.

If you're interested in making a difference, or if you simply want to meet some new friends; If you are looking for a place where you can be yourself, discuss your problems and take another step toward knowing yourself, our Lord and Savior, and those around you, we will welcome you with open arms and good humor.

Our next meeting will be Saturday March 3 at 7:00 p.m. in the home of Jon and Rochelle Woods, 2580 Kristine Court, Centralia. Anyone interested please contact Jon or Rochelle and let them know that you'll be attending. You may contact them at (360) 593-4248.

IN HIS GRIP

Wow! Sometimes that is all you can say when things are happening fast and are as exciting as they are here in the Church! So many new members and baptisms, the work going on in the building, painting, updating, plumbing, fire suppression systems; things going on outside the building, new piping for the fire suppression system, sprucing up the trees and gardens.

The biggest thing happening is "in the church". That would be us, we, the people of God. We are the church and we are growing as we are fed and nourished on the word of God. More of us are participating in small groups, Bible studies and Sunday school than ever before. We have new groups starting all the time as people step up and say this is where God would have me serve. On Sunday February 19 we had a "meet and greet" meeting for our Gen Y, 20 somethings. We had 11 young adults show for that meeting and they are now meeting each week as a small group/ action group. These are exciting things for me. So I say WOW!!

What has Wowed you of late?

What are the things you can thank God for as you see what He is doing here in this place, His Church?

Do you hear Him speaking to you about service or joining with others in community in a small group?

Another WOW for me is that we are getting very close to having a small group in the Napavine area!! There are many of you who live "out that way" and are not in a group or are driving into Chehalis to be in a group. It is kinda like looking for coming attractions - a new group for Napavine. Please join me in prayer about this and so many other things that are happening here.

Don't get overwhelmed and certainly do not get underwhelmed in doing good! Relax and trust that God knows what He is doing with His church and with each of us.

Our Acts study continues, we continue to be amazed by the Unstoppable Acts of the Holy Spirit in the early church and can see how He continues through us in this day!

Speaking of Acts Study. Several of you have told me that you missed one or more of the sermons in this series. Well Good News!! All the sermons are on our website www.fbcchehalis.org. Just copy or enter that address in your computer browser and then when the page opens look at the boat in the picture and just below the boat see the green "ribbon" there you will see "Our Sermons Online!" just click on that and you will be taken to the sermons. You can download them to you pc or just listen to them right there. Also you can tell your friends and relatives about the sermons and point them to the website and they can listen or download the sermons. The printed outlines are also on that page.

Well my paper is full for this time. Continue to be WOWED by what God is doing in our church and in each of us!!

Pastor Skip

Worship is.

. Memorizing Scripture. How are you at memorizing scripture? Is it easy or difficult? For me, it's difficult. When I was in high school, in our church, we had a program for memorizing. There were four of us girls who decided to take it on - King James Version, of course. We memorized long portions of scripture, i.e. John 1:1-14. And many others of such length. I still remember many of the verses. Now, however, with so many translations to look at, it's more difficult. I read one the other day and if the reference had not been there, I would not have recognized it. "Don't become so well-adjusted to your culture that you fit into it without even thinking. Instead, fix your attention on God. You'll be changed from the inside out. Readily recognize what he wants from you and quickly respond to it. Unlike the culture around you, always dragging you down to its level of immaturity, god brings the best out of you, develops well-formed maturity in you". (MSG) Recognize it? Try Romans 12:2. My point is that it doesn't make any difference which version you use, as long as you are comfortable, make it a habit. Psalm 119 is full of good stuff and verse 11 says "Your word have I hidden in my heart, that I might not sin against You." And vs 105: "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path". And "I will lift up my eyes to hills From whence comes my help? My help comes from the Lord, Who made heaven and earth. He will not allow your foot to be moved: He who keeps you will not slumber. Behold, He who keeps Israel Shall neither slumber nor sleep". Ps 121:1-4 (NKJV)

There are many good ways to study and memorize, and we just need to find the way that is the easiest to do it. Think about it.

Blessings

DOWN ON THE FARM – HOGS AND HOPE

Up to my elbows in quilt pieces, I'm a bit aggravated when the ringing phone breaks my concentration. Setting a stack of fabric down, I growl "Hello" into the mouthpiece.

"We've got a pig out." My husband's aggravation filters through the receiver along with his unspoken plea for help.

"Where?"

"Sheep pasture, below the manure pile." (Landmarks are always helpful!)

"I'll be down in a minute." My attitude switches from grumpy to go-get-um in a flash.

Of all our animals, pigs are the hardest to corral. They turn on a dime and give you change and explode from a standstill to an all-out-run faster than you can say pork chop. Today we're more blessed than usual. Our truant porker is anxious to join his friends and allows us to herd him back to their pen with a minimum of chasing.

Once contained, the next step is to find where the pig escaped. Since we use an electric wire around their pen, this is the first thing we check. Mike barely gets through the gate when he hollers, "Grab me a pitchfork, will you? I've got to get the dirt they dug up off the wire."

Retrieving the implement and returning, I see just how much our five pigs have changed their pasture since May. The acreage they're on looks like it has been plowed. rocks have been moved and new ones dug up. Several stumps are substantially smaller than before. The dark brown soil is exposed where a green pasture used to be.

"Wow. They sure have been busy." I offer as I pass the pitchfork over the fence.

Pigs love dirt and the worms, grubs, bugs, minerals and vitamins they unearth contribute to their healthy diet. If their well rounded bellies are any indication, they've been busy munchers.

"Yeah," says Mike. "They've flipped strips of sod over the hot wire all the way around the pasture. Go unplug the charger and I'll get the electricity working again. Don't want to have to chase pigs again tomorrow."

"Okay, I'll head back to the house and put some fresh coffee on."

Trudging back up the hill, pondering the pros and cons of raising pigs, I suddenly realize the torn up pasture is actually an unexpected blessing. It had been overgrown on one end with blackberries. Thistles had taken over another section. Rocks and stumps littered the whole hillside. The pigs had loosened rocks, eaten the blackberry roots, torn up the weeds and given us an opportunity to replant with a better grade of grass seed.

How often, I wonder, have I faced some unexpected change with resentment or resistance, seeing only the down side of the situation? Have I missed seeing the blessings that were attached to those changes? I know in my "BC" (before Christ) days, I would not have seen the positives. During the "AC" years, God has helped me to see the blessings.

Within my first two years as a Christian, I lost my job, developed several muscle spasms in my back and despaired over problems with both my teenage children. The blessings? I discovered my newfound church family was there to listen, counsel and pray with and for me. I learned to pray for my family in ways I hadn't thought of before. God provided a temporary job where the manager was a Christian woman who was willing to let me work standing up if I needed to.

Just as the pig tore up the pasture, life circumstances chewed up my life. The blessing is that it opened my eyes to seeing new beginnings with a Heavenly Father whose plans were bigger than I could ever imagine.

Although I didn't understand all of this immediately, it became apparent God was working and I could trust him. The love, prayer and comfort offered by other Christians encouraged me to keep moving forward spiritually. I felt assured the choice I'd made to accept Christ overshadowed the changes the world threw at me.

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Jeremiah 29:11NIV

I have hope.

Children's Church

Something new and exciting is happening in Children's Church! Summer Ramos has felt the call to teach our children, ages 5 through 3rd grade, during 2nd hour church service and she has enlisted a very fine team of leaders to serve alongside her: Charlene Davis, Mary Funk, Patti Larson and Susie Sloan. This team has been inspired to teach our children lessons from the Book of Acts, right along with what their parents are learning in church service. Their material has been exclusively designed by Charleen Davis, a Master of Children's Curriculum.

Go, Therefore and Make Disciples

Jesus, in the Great Commission, tells us to be missionaries no matter where we are, but we often times have our own ideas of what it means to be a missionary. When I think about “traditional missions” I think of the opening scenes of Raiders of the

 Ark,
 when
 Indiana
 Jones is in the

and ends up being chased by the natives who don’t want him there. Or the story of Jim Elliot and Nick Saint in the jungles of Ecuador while attempting to evangelize the Waodani people. Dangerous “Over-there” missions!

Then I think of the past mission trips we’ve done as a Youth Group from FBCC. I’ve been part of trips to Native Americans from the Yakama nation in Eastern Washington where we painted houses and did clubs with kids; We went to Mexico where we built a couple of houses and held a VBS; we went to rural Montana to reach out to a small community and share Christ with the teens and the town; We’ve done some local missions projects, working with organizations such as the Lighthouse resource center and Love INC. as well as looked at homeless issues and the communities in Portland, Or. All great opportunities and memories as we’ve participated in missions.

In March we will be looking at the early mission trips of the first church with Paul, Barnabas, Timothy, Peter, Philip and more! We are excited to be studying some of the same stories that Pastor Mark is preaching on Sunday mornings.

We will also have the opportunity to hear from some of our missionaries from Africa as the Chapmans will be here from the Democratic Republic of the Congo to share what they’ve been doing with their powered parachute, their exotic animal ministry and more.

As a Youth Ministry we are also reworking our vision for missions. We are looking at future mission trips with our students as well as supporting some missions projects through American Baptist International Ministries. Possible projects include Palm oil plantations, a protective fence project, raising money to purchase mattresses for Congolese hospitals, or buying pigs or goats for village families in different areas.

If any of you are passionate about missions, (students, parents, or anyone!) or have ideas, let’s get together and talk about it, pray about it, and see where God leads us!

Pastor Jeff

Mission of the Month

Our church has a long-standing relationship with Camp Bethel. For many years our children, youth and adults have attended Camp Bethel. Several members of our church have directed camps or served as camp staff, and several have served on the Camp Bethel Board (there are presently 3).

We have held Men's Retreats, Women's Retreats, and Family Camps at Camp Bethel. We have been a major supporter of the camp for many years.

Camp Bethel is located north of Hoquiam, on Kirkpatrick Road between Copalis Crossing and Hump-tulips. The original section of camp lies between Kirkpatrick Road and Damon Lake. It includes a large lodge with a recreation room, seven cabins, a bath house, RV spaces, a large athletic field, and hiking trails. The lake is good for boating and fishing. Across the road is the retreat center, staff lodging, garages, sheds and trails to the Hump-tulips River, which is good for rafting, swimming and fishing.

Last April a 62 acre farm was added to the camp property. It included a large farmhouse which is now the director's home, several out-buildings, lots of pasture, and a lot more river shoreline. Last summer we were able to introduce horseback riding at a youth camp, and plan to have it available at all three youth camps this summer. We are presently developing a paint ball course to be available year round.

What can you do to help this invaluable ministry? Certainly you can contribute dollars, there is never enough to do all that we want to do. You can volunteer at camp on various projects, work parties, camp maintenance or volunteer staff. You can go to www.escrip.com on your computer and search for Camp Bethel. Sign up your Safeway Club Card and a percent of your purchases will go to camp.

The following are this years camp dates:

- May 25-28, Camp Bethel Work Weekend, getting the camp ready for the summer.
- July 15- 21, Senior High Camp, Grades 9 - 12 including 2012 graduates.
- July 22 - 28, Junior High Camp, Grades 6 - 8
- July 29 - August 2, Elementary Camp, grades 3 - 5
- August 31 - September 3, Family Camp
- September 10 - 13, Senior Adult Camp, 55+
- October 12 - 14, Men's Fishing Weekend (youth and boys included)

To reach the camp call 360-289-3444 or visit the camp website www.campbethel.net, email contact@campbethel.net or Facebook.

Then Sings my Soul

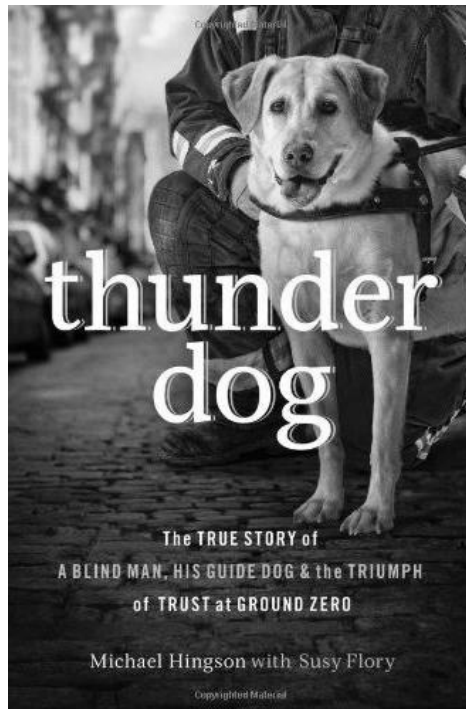

By Robert J. Morgan
(Worship Prayer and Praise)

150 all time favorite hymns and the story behind them. Did you know? Little Brown Church in the Vale was no longer in Fredericksburg, Iowa where it was when the words were written but now is alongside highway 218 in the town of Bradford in northern Iowa.

Did you know? It Is Well With my Soul was written after the author lost a fortune in real estate during the Chicago fire. About this same time his four year old son succumbed to scarlet fever. Two years later in 1873 he decided to take his wife and four daughters to Europe and at the last minute he couldn't go. The ship collided with another ship and went down. The 226 fatalities included all four of his daughters. His wife was one of 47 survivors and sent him a two word cable. "Saved Alone"

On the way to meet his wife he prayed "It is well; the will of God be done". He wrote the words to the song a little later.

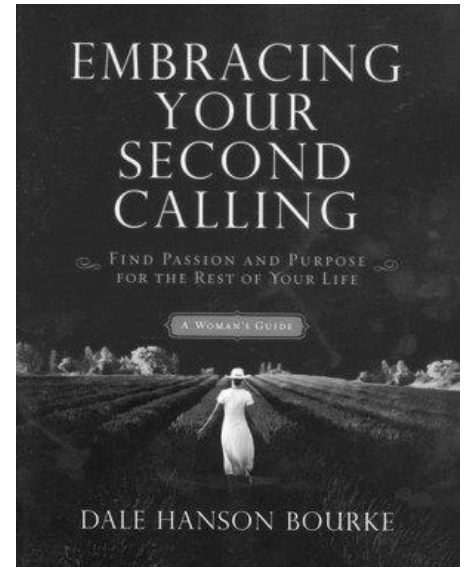

Thunder Dog

By Michael Hingson with Susy Flory
(Biography)

The true story of and by a man born blind and his strength to learn to live in a seeing world with his Seeing Eye dog through high school and college. He and his dog were on the 78th floor of Tower 1 of the World Trade Center when the plane hit on September 11, 2001. He relates what happened, how they felt, how his dog reacted, and his trust in God and wish to help others while trying to get out of the tower.

Embracing Your Second Calling

By Dale Hanson Bourke
(Women)

Sheila Walsh from Women of Faith says:

"I loved this book. It takes everything our culture tells us about a woman's worth and turns it on its head – right side up. When we are being told that our best days are over, Dale reminds us that in God's kingdom the best is yet to be. If you are tired of running through your life, here is an invitation to be still and hear God's second calling. It will change your life and, by God's grace, change our world."

Easter Choir

We will be beginning our rehearsals for the Easter music on Monday, March 19, 7:15 pm in the Worship Center. I have chosen a single piece of music for choir, handbells and brass: "When in our Music, God is Glorified", a hymn by Fred Pratt Green. I am excited about this music and I hope you will join us to share and celebrate the message with our congregation and visitors on Easter Sunday morning.

Youth Membership Class 101

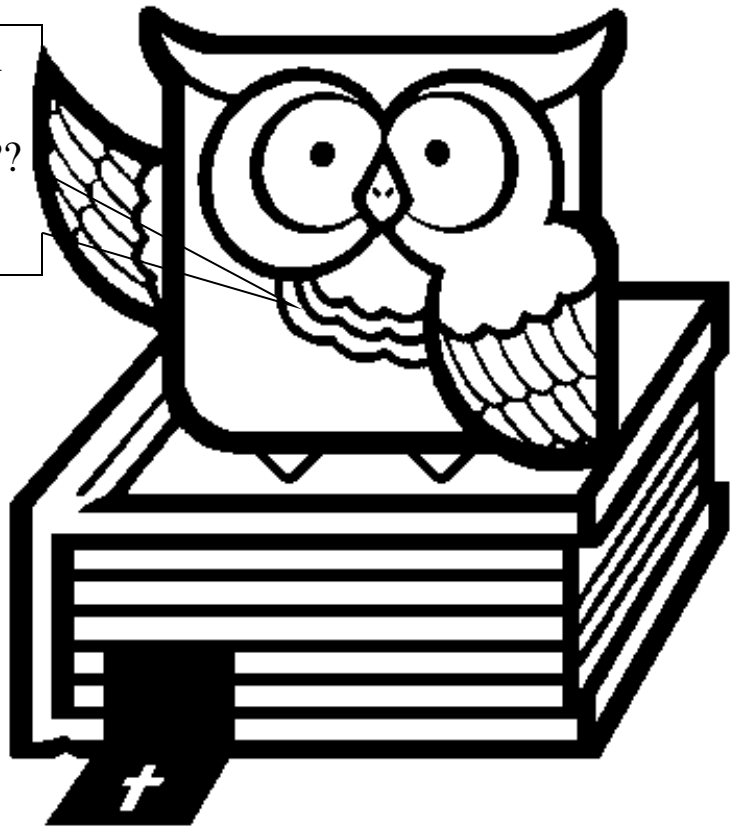

Is it time for you to become a Member?

Thinking about membership at FBCC? That's fantastic! Membership at FBCC is a pretty big deal. That's not because we think members are better than anyone else; it's because joining a church is a commitment. At FBCC when you are a member you are saying, "This is my church! I belong here!" The pastors want you to feel that way, we want you to know we want this to be your church and we feel so blessed when you make that commitment. Did you ever wonder can I vote on the church budget? How old do I have to be to vote? All of these questions will be answered when you attend the class.

We will be holding a Youth CLASS 101 on Sunday, March 18, 12:30 P.M. in the fellowship hall. CLASS 101 is all about what we believe, what we are doing here and what makes us different from other churches. If you are interested or would like more information, contact Pastor Jeff, uthpastor@fbcchehalis.org or 508-4050.

(This class is not limited to only youth if you would like to attend)
