

Musician Vacancy Announcement

The White Rock Baptist Church of Linden, New Jersey is seeking a musician on a part-time basis. This person will also be responsible for playing the piano/organ for choir rehearsals and Sunday services. The position will primarily be responsible for playing the piano/organ for volunteer choirs, playing congregational music, introducing and teaching new songs and assisting with solos, duets, trios, ensembles instrumental or vocal on a regular basis in worship services.

The music style of White Rock Baptist Church is traditional gospel with some contemporary praise music. This valuable person should work well with choir members as well as the church officers. Work will be reviewed through observation, administrative evaluation and congregational feedback for effectiveness.
