

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With Your Kids

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: PALM SUNDAY

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

Today we talked the triumphal entry. The people welcomed Jesus like a king, but he rode in on a lowly donkey. Jesus was reminding us once again that he did not come to be a distant ruler, but a friend and a servant to all. He rode a donkey so we would go to him and not be afraid. Matthew 21:1-11, The Triumphal Entry

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Look for ways that you can your family can serve someone this week. Encourage the kids to work hard and to show the love of Jesus with their actions.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- What animal did Jesus ride on his way into Jerusalem?
- Why did Jesus ride a donkey and not a horse?
- How can we follow Jesus' example and love others?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted, 'Hosanna!' 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'" - Mark 11:9 (NIV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

Jesus made himself nothing, a servant of all, so that we could go to him without fear.

This week, thank God for the amazing love of Jesus, and ask him to draw you and your children closer to him.
