Seasons Change

Expect the Great: In yourself and others.

Season change can either turn into a never ending Complaint or a Constant Celebration. However, celebration is not always automatic; it must be intentional. If we are still here (and we are), we can celebrate that God's plan for us is still intact (Ephesians 2:10).

CELEBRATE

- Choose to live, not just exist. John 10:10b - "I came that they may have life and have it abundantly."
- Endure hardness with grace: Galatians 6:9 - "And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up."
- Live In The Moment; Yesterday = cancelled check, tomorrow = promissory note. All we have is today.

- Extinguish Doubt: Our doubts are traitors, and make us lose the good we oft might win, by fearing to attempt." -William Shakespeare
- Banish Fear: 1 Tim 1:7 - "For God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control."
- Receive Grace Graciously: An offer to help is a gift, not an attempt to point out a weakness or limitation.
- Accept Limitations: Like it or not, seasons change - Ecclesiastes 3 (Diahann Carroll says the legs are the first to go).
- Expect The Great: In yourself and others.

God's got this! God's got you!
Celebrate!

the action of marking one's pleasure at an important event or occasion by engaging in enjoyable, typically social, activity.

Let the celebration begin! Pessimists may roll their eyes and wonder if there's ever a reason to celebrate anything. If you polled those who have ever had their faith tested, they will likely say there are several reasons to celebrate everything!

If you've ever fallen down (emotionally, spiritually or financially), you will joyfully celebrate the beauty of God picking you up again. If you've ever been sick or felt alone, you celebrate the miracle of being restored.

If you've ever been depressed or have ever felt like you would never smile again, and God shined His light in you and lifted the spirit of depression from you, you can't help celebrating!

IF YOU'VE EVER FALLEN, YOU CELEBRATE GOD PICKING YOU UP!

God has graciously watched over Water Walking Women for 10 years and now it's time to celebrate! 10 years of His goodness. 10 years of His faithfulness. 10 years of His favor. 10 years of His unfailing love. What a mighty God we serve!

When Shyreka Sturdivant yielded to God's will for her to start a weekly prayer call 10 years ago, the Lord already knew that hundreds of lives would be changed for the better because of her obedience.

Shy celebrates with those for whom God has answered seemingly impossible prayers. She has had her own prayers answered and we have celebrated each of her victories. We celebrate God for the continual expansion and global influence of Water Walking Women. This much needed ministry that started as a weekly prayer call, comprised of callers mostly from northern and southern California, now includes faithful callers and supporters from Michigan, New Mexico and other states. Philippians 4:4 (the Message Bible) says: "Celebrate God all day, every day. I mean, revel in Him!" and that's what we, the Water Walking Women of faith intend to do!

Blessings to you now and forevermore.

Pastor James Miller recently became the pastor of a small, but quickly growing church in Los Angeles. He and his wife, Lady Vivica, have been happily married for almost 30 years, and, from all appearances, everything is going well for them.

Vivica has worked hard to keep her perfect family intact. After all, she is the First Lady. Always impeccably dressed and well-coiffed, she never has a hair out of place and her makeup is always perfect, but things aren't always as they seem. Unbeknownst to her husband and daughter, Vivica, has been withholding a secret; a secret that will rock the church and her perfect family, if it's ever revealed.

Everyone wishes skeletons would stay buried, but they usually don't...as Vivica will soon find out.

SHAMILLA PENNINGTON celebrate again!

What an absolute honor and joy it is to CELEBRATE with Water Walking Women, Shyreka Sturdivant and, the amazing team on the commemoration of their 10 year Anniversary. 10 Years of YES! 10 Years of Dedication! 10 years of Commitment! 10 Years of Stick-to-itiveness! Now that's worthy of a Celebration, and Rejoicing giving God all the Glory.

To know me is to know that I love words and when I learned that the theme is CELEBRATION, almost immediately the song by the Iconic 1980's group (Kool & The Gang) "Celebration" came to mind. For those of you attending this year's 10 Year Anniversary Cruise, I pray you get excited when you board and make your way to the "Lido" deck. You're sure to hear this song at minimum 3 times while sailing.

Here are some of the lyrics to the 1980's hit song:
Yahoo! This is your celebration
Yahoo! This is your celebration
Celebrate good times, come on! (Lets Celebrate)
Celebrate good times, come on! (Lets Celebrate)

There's a party goin' on right here.
A Celebration to last throughout the YEARS
So bring your good times and your laughter too.
We gonna celebrate your party with you come on.

The verse that grabs me is "A celebration to last throughout the years" let that resonate for just a moment (Selah). I can't help but notice how celebrating has become "scheduled" events and only noted when one has completed something. I can't help to notice also that funerals are now "Celebrations" of life after the passing of a loved one, and I've seen the grief of missed moments to celebrate or rejoice while it is still day.

To Celebrate means: acknowledge (a significant or happy day or event) with a social gathering or enjoyable activity.

Now allow me to introduce another word REJOICE.

To Rejoice means: feel or show great joy or delight.

One of the synonyms to rejoice is "Celebration".

I will be the first to admit that Celebrating and Rejoicing is not always an easy thing to do, especially when you're tired or just plain ole frustrated.

The Apostle Paul writes in Philippians 4:4 "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say rejoice." Paul surely wasn't telling us to "Be Happy", but "Rejoice" in the Lord. We are simply to rejoice IN the Lord, not our circumstance, not our failures and not our frustrations. Let me help you by painting this picture for you... Paul is writing this epistle from prison, yet this did not distract him to rejoice in his problem, although his circumstances did not "look" promising, but He turned His attention and energy to the LORD where he gets his strength.

known you didn't complete your goals. No one knows how hard it was to stay committed to getting healthy. No one knows what it took to finish that semester of school when you wanted to give up. No one knows what you risked to make it to this point. Celebrate the small steps, they are equally as important as the finish line.

"He is your Praise and Glory; He is your God who has done for you these great and awesome things which you have seen with your own eyes." Deuteronomy 10:21

When is it most difficult for you to rejoice?
 Is it when you're under great pressure?
 Is it when your name is being slandered?
 Is it when the Doctor's report isn't favorable?
 Is it when you are challenged to be the bigger person again?
 When do you find it most difficult to "rejoice" in the LORD always?
 God the Master, Creator (Elohim), the one who fashioned us in our mother's womb and created us with an innate nature to "rejoice". To rejoice is an attitude that says regardless of the chances, changes, or circumstances that come into my life, I will rejoice in the Lord always; and again, I say rejoice.

So I come to encourage you to rejoice and to celebrate, not based on the conditions or circumstances you may be facing, but because when you think of the Goodness of Jesus and all He has done for you. When you think of how he has redeemed you. When you think of how He has provided. When you think of how He has kept you, when you couldn't keep yourself. My, My, My
 I'm going to leave you with this, don't wait for people to celebrate with you. Don't wait until you cross the finish line to celebrate, but celebrate the small steps why you may ask? Because no one but you knows what it took to stick-to-it when quitting was easy and no one would've

From meeting as "Strangers" to leaving the Conference as "Sisters" is indeed the "MO" of Water Walking Women. For 10 Years God has commissioned us to be His hands, heart and feet to Women all over the World from various backgrounds and ethnicity. Read our Journey below...

2009 - WATER WALKING WOMEN

We set sail for our very first Conference @ Sea to Ensenada Mexico and Catalina Island on November 28, 2009 with 66 Women from all over the State of California.

2011 - IT'S NOT OVER!

Don't stop Praying. Don't stop Praising. Don't stop Pushing. Don't stop Preparing. Don't stop Planning. IT'S NOT OVER!!!! It was THIS Conference that changed the trajectory of our Ministry!

2013 - I'M BACK

On April 5, 2013 Women from California, New Mexico, Texas and Michigan boarded the Imagination Cruise Ship and sailed to the Bahamas and declared, "I'M BACK"!

2014 - I AM ENOUGH

When Satan, Society and Self says, "You are not good enough, smart enough, or pretty enough, God says, "You are MORE than enough!" This was our first "Conference on Land" and took place August 7-9 at the Renaissance Resort in Indian Wells, California!

2015 - ABUNDANT LIFE

Our Abundant Life Conference @ Sea was life changing for all in attendance. Our eyes were fixed on John 10:10.

2016 - OVERCOMER

When trouble hits our home, many of us quickly begin to fret, quickly forgetting how our Daddy brought us through before. Then we sit still long enough to hear the Holy Spirit say, "You can get through this - you are an OVERCOMER"!

2017 - WE WIN

No longer will we live mundane lives in the shadow of our fears, doubts or insecurities. We will be Women who know our power, ability, and value through the redemptive blood and work of Jesus Christ!
