Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for your faithful prayers for me and our Los Angeles ministry team during camp last month! We were blessed to minister to about 40 kids ages 8-18 at Camp Sar Shalom in Big Bear Lake, California. The week was a LOT of fun and a great time of teaching, fellowship and spiritual growth for the campers and our staff. There were so many teachable moments with the kids, even outside of our planned Bible study times, and I know being exposed to the love of the Messiah through our amazing staff made a huge impact on their lives. God is so faithful to give us this wonderful week together that points the children and youth toward Jesus and encourages them throughout the year!

God has also been doing amazing things in my personal life in the last few months. On May 10, I became engaged to be married to my love and best friend, Travis Wood. Travis is from Broken Bow, Nebraska, and is very good friends with my three brothers who live there. Travis and I met through my family last year when they brought him along to our family vacation. During that holiday, we were both very drawn to each other and we have been getting to know each other intentionally for several months. Travis and I see how God has orchestrated our romance from the beginning and are so excited to be starting a life together as husband and wife. Our vision for our lives is to grow together in love for God, each other and those around us and to serve Him as a team. We also have a lot of fun together and can talk for hours on end! ☺ As you know, this is an answer to many of my prayers through the years, and I am so thankful and blessed to have Travis in my life. He is exactly the man that I believe God was preparing me for and our families are delighting with us in all that God has done in bringing us together. Our wedding is coming soon – September 13, 2014! I appreciate your prayers for Travis and me as we begin this new life and continue our journey of walking with the Lord together.

Thank you again and richest blessings to you!
