Dear Friends,

I hope you are well and that the Lord is blessing your walk with Him. This month, I want to let you know about Simcha (Joy), our annual Messianic retreat, held in partnership with Son of David Messianic Congregation of Wheaton, Maryland. We hope you will join us for what will certainly be a wonderful time of worship, teaching, fellowship and fun that will be held once again at the Bongiorno Conference Center in Carlisle, Pennsylvania this May 22-25.

The theme this year is, “Sharing, Shmaring: Why is Evangelism So Hard?” This is a topic that strikes close to home for many of us, for most of us are not born evangelists. Paul identifies evangelism as a spiritual gift. To tell the truth, this is the task in our Christian walk that many of us dread most of all – especially when it comes to sharing the Gospel with those closest to us.

This year’s Simcha conference is delighted to have Randy Newman as a featured speaker. Randy is a teacher and writer with Connection Points, a ministry that seeks to engage people’s hearts the way Jesus did. He served for over thirty years with Campus Crusade for Christ and continues to minister to students and professors at George Mason University. He is the author of three books to help Christians articulate their faith in a warm and winning way. He and his wife Pam live in Annandale, Virginia. They have three grown sons and one delightful daughter-in-law.

Worship is also an important component of Simcha. This year we are excited to have Steve and Misti Wiggins, who have been recording and performing music for over twenty years. Their professional accomplishments include fourteen studio albums, ten #1 radio singles and five Grammy Award nominations. Steve is presently on staff at Bellevue Baptist Church, Memphis, Tennessee, and is the former worship leader at Chosen People Ministries’ Messianic congregation in Irvine, California.

If you or someone you know would like registration information, give our office a call at 212-223-2252 or on the web at <http://events.chosenpeople.com/event/simcha>.

Blessings in Messiah,

Robin
