OUR GUEST PREACHER

Min Lester Ham, Jr. - Mt. Sinai Baptist Church

Minster Lester Ham, Jr. was born in Silver Spring, MD and raised in Laurel, MD. He would honestly say God has given him a heart to be a minister since he was 6 years old. He loved preaching as a child. When he got to high school at St. Vincent Pallotti, he led Bible studies with a few friends and people on the football team. In college, he continued to lead Bible studies.

Then, after he graduated from Morgan State University with his Bachelor’s Degree in Psychology, the Lord called him to lead the Youth Ministry at Mount Sinai Baptist Church for six years. He received his license to minister at Mt. Sinai Baptist Church. He learned so much under the direction of his Pastor Tyrone Queen and the former assistant Pastor, Rev. David McIntosh Peters, who now is the Senior Pastor at Salem Baptist Church.

Not too long after that he married the love of his life, Victoria Ham. Now, he currently serves with the Navigators as Campus Director on site at Bowie State University. He and his wife both love God and have accepted that they are called to be messengers of the Good News that Jesus is alive! They now mentor students weekly, participate in worship, teaching, preaching, and loving the community as a team and family. They both learned so much from God throughout their lives, especially as they became parents in 2022. Perhaps the greatest lesson is this, they take no credit for all the blessings God has given them. They thank God for His grace and mercy. He saw fit to free us from the bondage of the enemy.
