BILLY GRAHAM
“Palm Sunday is really a snapshot that represents all of Jesus’s life: His love, sacrifice, and commitment to a greater story, to God’s ultimate work. When He rode into Jerusalem, He didn’t arrive in order to raise more support or gain more approval. This was not a campaign rally where He was trying to make sure enough people liked Him to get elected. That wasn’t His goal, and He knew what was coming. He knew in the coming days He would die on a cross.”
