Dear Parishioners,

This Saturday we celebrate our great patron, Saint Anthony of Padua. He is considered one of the most popular saints worldwide—largely because of his help in finding lost items. He also is a great prayer partner in praying for troubled people—some who have abandoned the faith. Who does not know of someone who has been away from the Lord—or been traveling the wrong road of life. St. Anthony pray for us. Happy Feast Day!

I attended the ordination of our new associate pastor, Fr. Andrew Windschitl last Friday. He will report the first full week of July. Let’s pray for him and his ministry here among us.

Summer is heating up. Don’t forget daily prayer and Sunday Mass.

Blessings,
