

STUDY NO. 10

WITNESSING AND WINNING SOULS

Introduction

By His atoning death on the cross Christ has made salvation possible for all men everywhere. But in order to receive salvation each person must first hear the Word of God and the testimony of Christ. God's plan is that every person who is saved should be filled with the Holy Spirit and should then use this power to witness to others of Christ, and that in this way the testimony of Christ should continually be extended further and further abroad, until it has reached the uttermost part of the earth and until all nations have heard. This is the great way in which all Christians can work together to prepare the way for the return of Christ. Christians who are faithful in witnessing will receive a reward from Christ Himself, and will have the joy of seeing in heaven the souls who have been won through their testimony. Christians who are unfaithful will have to answer to God for lost souls to whom they failed witness.
