

STUDY NO. 14

REVIEW

Introduction

The purpose of this last study is to fix firmly in your mind the many important truths which you have learned from the previous studies. Review is an essential part of all thorough learning. If you are willing to work steadily through this last study, carefully following the instructions step by step, you will greatly increase the benefit and blessing which you have received from the previous studies, and you will find out for yourself just how much you have really learned. Do not omit the review of the Memory work!

Final Memory work: James 1:25

(Review previous verse daily)

First, read carefully through all the questions of the previous 13 studies, together with the corresponding correct answers. Check that you now know and understand the correct answer to each question.

Secondly, review all the passages which you have learned for Memory work.

Thirdly, write the answers to Sections A and B below.

SECTION A: Write below, in the spaces provided, 4 Important Truths from the Bible, which you have learned from this course. In each case, write down the references to the passages in the Bible where that truth is found.
