“THE SPIRIT Poured OUT: GIVES BREATH”

ACTS 17:16-34

^[16] Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw that the city was full of idols. ^[17] So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there. ^[18] Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also conversed with him. And some said, “What does this babbling wish to say?” Others said, “He seems to be a preacher of foreign divinities”—because he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection. ^[19] And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, “May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting? ^[20] For you bring some strange things to our ears. We wish to know therefore what these things mean.” ^[21] Now all the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there would spend their time in nothing except telling or hearing something new.

^[22] So Paul, standing in the midst of the Areopagus, said: “Men of Athens, I perceive that in every way you are very religious. ^[23] For as I passed along and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, ‘To the unknown god.’ What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. ^[24] The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by man, ^[25] nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mankind life and breath and everything. ^[26] And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place, ^[27] that they should seek God, and perhaps feel their way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us, ^[28] for

“‘In him we live and move and have our being’;

as even some of your own poets have said,

“‘For we are indeed his offspring

^[29] Being then God’s offspring, we ought not to think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of man. ^[30] The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, ^[31] because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.” ^[32] Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked. But others said, “We will hear you again about this.” ^[33] So Paul went out from their midst. ^[34] But some men joined him and believed, among whom also were Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris and others with them.
