Missionary Books Are In!

Ready to go on a free trip around the world for the summer? Pick up one of the four new exciting books from JoAnne Sherrod and start your fun summer reading. Below is a blurb from one of the books.

Eyewitness

Seeing from within an Oppressive Society

by Gusztinné Tulipán Mária

Gusztinné Tulipán Mária was born to Christian parents in Hungary at a time in that country’s history when Christ followers were being persecuted under Communist rule. By the 1990’s, the culture had begun to change in monumental ways. Maria was an eyewitness to great events. As she reflects on her years serving as an ordained elder in the Church of the Nazarene, María says this about her homeland: “I do like the complexity of the ugly and the good together...and discovering the touch of God’s hand through it all.”

Have you signed up to help in VBS? If you haven’t see Rob or Sarah Hills today after the morning worship service or at the picnic. There are plenty of areas still available just for YOU! With seven regular families moving off the island in the early summer (some have already moved), YOU truly are needed to help make this a successful VBS.

Sandi Murdy is gearing up to create her usual amazing decorations for VBS. She is already in need of CLEAN tin cans all sizes. Bring them to the church anytime!
