JANUARY 2019 NEWSLETTER

*And he commanded our ancestors to teach them to their children.
Then their children would know them, even their children not yet born.
And they would tell their children. So they would all trust God. Psalm 78:5-7*

Dear Friends in Christ,

First Thoughts– It's a few days before Christmas as I write. It not that I'm a procrastinator, but I bet like you my plate is full not so much with holiday treats as with holiday to do's (you fill in your list, I have mine). So here I am attempting to reflect on the New Year when I have yet to spent time with Mary to ponder "the things that happened." Then it occurred to me, my life was speaking, am I listening?

What do you hear when you listen to your life? Busyness? Lists of "to do's," "should do's" "didn't do"? Added to the noise of our busy life, the cacophony of our own self-talk can be noisier than my college roommate's mega amped up stereo receiver (ah, those were the days). We may get things done, but do we take time to savor? We rush from the table, from the job, from the gym, from relationships, from ourselves, and ultimately we run from God. No time to pray, to worship, to listen, to ponder and therefore we get lost in the noise of the moment.

Maybe that's why mom liked 10 minutes in the tub, dad liked to go for a walk (how do you break the noise?) Reading, fishing, sitting in tree stand? Out in the shed, the shop, the sewing room? Where, how do you and I seek the spaces which make our lives whole?

Second thoughts– Like a baby learning to walk, I have yet to meet a toddler who can run a marathon after their first steps, yet so often New Year's resolutions try to move mountains, change life, go in a new direction. No wonder we're so easily discouraged and give up.

So my life speaks again, am I listening? I often find myself out on the recliner in the wee hours of the night. A different position is needed. I have learned over time that this is one of the moments of stillness presented to me. So before I tumble back into sleep, I spend a little time with a Bible app (my favorite is www.sacredspace.com i.e.), my prayer concerns , but mostly simply sitting in silence. Can't say that I've heard the voice of God, but I can say that little late night time has become precious to me in a life that is often filled with noise.

So, maybe that is a word for us in the New Year– begin where you are, God is already there. Like the Psalmist said, "Be still and know I'm God," the first step might just be right here, right now. Oh I would like to say my New Year's resolution with be earth shattering, but maybe I simply ought to listen and take a baby step or two, how about you?

Third Thoughts– I was pondering our ministry together and became quite struck with how global and local Gloria Dei is as we seek to live our Mission " Gathering to Grow to the Glory of God." To toot a horn a bit, consider our local ministries:

Christmas Closet

Relay for Life

Community Connections

Banquet West

Food Pantry

Funeral Hospitality

These are just a few examples of the compassion of Christ making a difference in the lives of others.

Or think about global outreach projects such as

Quilting

Operation Christmas Child

Sister Synod Projects

Food for the Poor

Feed My Starving Children

Lives are being touched, sometimes literally saved because of the gifts of your time, your talent, and often your treasure. In the smiles, in the tears, in the faces of those we meet, and those we will never see, God is doing an amazing thing in, with and through you! If you have an idea or a project in mind, let's talk and with prayerful imagination begin to turn our "what if's" into "what is"

All of this came during a late night pondering in my chair, and draws me to say "Thank you" it is a joy serving with you as we follow our living Lord into a new year!

Thanks for your partnership in the Gospel.

A Monthly Update from Western ND Synod Staff

Mark Narum, Serving as Bishop of the Western North Dakota Synod

A Year that is New...

One of the gifts of the New Year is the chance to "start anew." We enter January as an artist facing a blank canvas – white, fresh, clean. The possibilities ahead are infinite. What colors will fill in the background? What is the subject of the painting? Where will the brush move us?

As I sat in worship recently we sang Marty Haugen's, "Gather Us In." My imagination took ahold as I sang the words at the end of the second stanza, "...give us the courage to enter the song." I began to wonder about the new beginnings offered at this time of year. What would it mean to enter the song? Where might courage push me?

I invite you spend time pondering Haugen's words, his invitation to pray for courage to be the Good News of Jesus in a new or different way this coming year. I am not certain what that would look like in your life; my guess is that it would be different for each of us. But what if in the midst of our daily routines we looked for opportunities to let the Gospel sing through our words and deeds. No matter where we work, or reside, or wander, or shop, or live – each of us have opportunities to "enter the song" by truly loving others.

It seems to me our faith in Jesus is not lived out through extraordinary acts of self-sacrifice, as much as it is lived out through the very ordinary and mundane daily tasks which show we love others. Opportunities to be Christ's love come to us often. May you keep your eyes to notice them and then have "...the courage to enter the song."

Assembly...

As you prepare for your annual meetings a reminder: each congregation of the synod is invited to elect at least two people (larger congregations may send more depending on membership). Assembly this year will be at The Grand in Minot. June 6 is pre-assembly and June 7th and 8th is the Assembly. We will gather under the theme: The Kingdom of God is Like: Dreams – Desires – Demands. Assembly is a time of worship, Bible Study, faith-filled conversations and more. Plan to attend now.

A deep word of appreciation to all congregations who generously shared Mission Support this past year. We are able to be in ministry together because of your generosity.

LSS of ND Celebrates its 100th Birthday in February!

Every congregation in the Western North Dakota Synod is a part owner of Lutheran Social Services of North Dakota. Our Social Ministry organization is turning 100 years old in February. Here is an invitation from LSS: On February 24, 2019, we'd like to invite congregations to continue their long support and partnership with us by simultaneously hosting a celebration potluck meal in each church after services. This mass breaking of bread (or lefse!) seems like the ideal way to celebrate a century of partnership in bringing healing, help and hope to our neighbors.

If you would like to have an LSS staff or board member present with you on this special day call LSS. You can be proud that over the past 100 years your social ministry has helped with adoptions, cared for senior citizens, provided in-patient mental healthcare for youth, done in-home coaching for young parents, resettled refugees and much more.

GIFTS Event...

What opportunities is God providing for your congregation to be the Gospel in your community? In what ways are we being called to engage ministry differently today? What experiments are needed to test our hunches? These are some of the questions that Dr. Dwight Zscheile will help us engage during our next GIFTS event on February 2 at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Bismarck.

This would be an excellent event for any church council. A way to wonder together about making Gospel-sized plans for your congregation.

A Couple of Quick Notes...

-Now is the time to fill out the annual parochial report. Check the synod website for a link. It the responsibility of the congregation pastor ensure this report is filed.

-It is also time to send your Bishop's Report. This is a chance for us to hear how ministry is going in your place.

-If you have GIFTS members in your congregation, please help them get their annual tuition paid now. Many congregations cover this expense as a way of helping build up lay ministry within their congregation. GIFTS helps build stronger lay leaders.

Blessings,

Mark Narum

Serving as Bishop of the Western North Dakota Synod

"I thank God every time I remember you" Philippians 1:4

Dear Friend in Christ,

As we approach the Holiday Season, it reminds us of all the blessing we receive. As Bing Crosby would sing, count your blessings instead of sheep, you'll fall asleep counting your blessings... And we at Gloria Dei have been witness to many blessings– large church school numbers, the joy of noisy offerings supporting so may things, Suppers for our Wednesday night children, Crosses for Bethel, Christmas Closet, Banquet West and the list goes on.

While we gather to grow to the glory of God, we profess how we "love our church". We all need to reflect on how many of these blessings come to fruition. It's because of generous and dedicated members of Gloria Dei.

As we move into our thoughts of our stewardship towards Gloria Dei, please consider gifts that will continue the great work we do.

Give generously. Gloria Dei needs your financial help to continue our mission of Gathering to Grow. Thank You for your partnership in the Gospel.

Faith News January 2019 Bill Christensen

Magi from the East came to Jerusalem and asked: “Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We have seen his star in the East and have come to worship Him.” Matthew 2:

The Magi must have wondered if the prophets of old were right, if the star they had been following was indeed leading them to a king. They thought Jerusalem would be the birth place of a new king, but King Herod knew nothing. Something about star gave them hope and so they continued on following that star to Bethlehem and imagine their surprise when the star stopped over a stable. Could a king really be born in such humble settings?

When they saw and worshipped the Christ Child they knew they had found their King and they were no longer bothered by the modest circumstances of Christ's humble birth place. They surely had to have struggled with doubts about their journey and what they were to find.

Christians experience this same struggle as we endure our trials until we come closer to God. We with our over the top celebrations of Christ's birthday so often miss the real meaning of Christmas as we look in all the wrong places for our God who comes to us a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths... We too should fall on our knees and worship the God who so loved us so much that God sent His only Son to live among us. We light candles on our Advent wreath for hope, peace, joy and love. God's blessings to us that gives real meaning to our Christmas and all thru out our year. Jesus' mission on earth was to teach us to love, have hope, live in joy and peace with each other. May you all have a Blessed New Year living in the promises of Christ our Lord.

Notes from Joanne Njos

*Faith LCW will meet January 5 at 10 AM at Sharon Moline's. Bible study leader is Phyllis Sylte.

*Faith's Annual Meeting is January 20 with Fellowship Dinner to follow.

*Cleaning for January is Larry and Joanne Njos.

Epiphany is a day in the church when we celebrate the arrival of the Magi in Bethlehem. The three had come to worship Jesus. These three wisemen knew who Jesus was and knew the baby needed to be protected (Matthew 2:1-12). Epiphany is also a word used to describe a new way of thinking about something, or as some would say, “My eyes were opened.” Some may refer to that moment as a “light bulb moment” when a light shined in the darkness and gave them a new way of thinking about something.

At Community Connections we look for those lights that show us the needs of our community. We talk to others in our community to learn from them and to compare what each of us are seeing. Every month we meet with a group of partners that includes churches, social service agencies, Job Service ND and other interested individuals. We discuss what is currently going in our community and think about solutions. Below are some startling statistics of what is currently happening in our community.

Community Connections Clients as of December 15, 2018:

2017 total client visits: 773

2018 total client visits: 1,161

Adults reporting they are living on the streets or in their cars:

2017: 116 adults 2018: 276 adults and 41 children 273% rise

The Williston School District #1 reports they have 356 students, up from 74 in 2016-17, classified as homeless under the McKinney Vento Act. The Act defines children as homeless if they are living on the streets, in a car, are unaccompanied by an adult, living “doubled-up” in an apartment or home, or in a camper. All considered unsafe conditions for children.

Many people may think the homeless are transient people just looking for a “quick buck” then going home. There are still some of those coming to Williston. However, there are differences this year. First, we have had people come for help because their rents are rising $300-$500 per month and even working they cannot afford the higher rent causing them to be evicted and become homeless. Second, families are coming because one of the parents has a good job offer but we have no company provided housing and they cannot afford to rent until they have received at least 2-3 paychecks to pay for a security deposit and first month’s rent. Third, the many jobs available in Williston are advertised across our country, people respond in hopes of making their lives better but the employers, especially in the oil fields, are looking to hire people with the skills needed for the job.

As we begin a new year, we at Community Connections are looking for ideas, for new ways of thinking, for epiphanies on how to help those in need in our community. We invite you to stop by our offices or call us with your idea. Working together we can make a difference one life at a time.
